

Bravo Por Chile By Alejandro Bravo

Latin American & Chilean Visual Artist | Creative Director of BRAVO POR CHILE

Artistic Statement

Bravo Guerra is a Latin American visual artist from Chile, committed to cultural promotion and the preservation of Chilean heritage. His work combines mixed media techniques and contemporary digital photomontages to create paintings and large-scale pieces that explore Chile's architecture, Indigenous cultures, and popular icons. His practice is a constant dialogue between Chilean history and identity.

Biography

With a career spanning over 15 years, Bravo Guerra has participated in exhibitions and competitions both in Santiago and across Chile, as well as internationally in South Korea, Dubai, Argentina, and the United States. His work has been recognised at major art fairs and collective exhibitions.
